INVESTIGATION:

On 5/15/99, I was assigned information control number DN3554 for follow up investigation. The information control narrative stated that Shawn Nossaman indicated that a lunch employee, Ms. Caruthers, was in the cafeteria when this occurred. The information control sheet was prepared by Sergeant Calvin Hemphill, Denver Police Department.

On 5/18/99, I contacted Jefferson County Schools Area Administrator, Barb Monseu, and requested any information she might have on cafeteria employee by the name of Ms. Caruthers. She said that she had no information on such an employee but would provide me with information on the manager and other employees of the kitchen. On 5/19/99 I received a fax transmission from Nancy Cook for Barb Monseu with a list of the Columbine High School cafeteria workers. Ms. Caruthers is not on that list.

LEAD SYNOPSIS

The phrase "Today will not be a good day" was the thought of the day, on the RNN or Rebel News Network.

LEAD NARRATIVE

The Rebel News Network is actually a school sponsored program of the schools video production class. The class instructor is:

Gary Talocco DOB 7/1/49

6866 S. Dover Way, Littleton CO 80128

H-303-972-6292

W-303-982-4468 (messages)

Mr. Talocco teaches video production, the first three periods of the day. (Current class lists are attached) At the beginning of the second period of school a program is aired to the school on the schools video network. The program broadcasts current school news and events. The program also does various future programs on various items of interest to the students. These features are normally run on Fridays. The program is mainly run by the students, who write, direct, and act as camera operators and on camera announcers. The only staff involvement is by Gary Talocco who states that since the program is done every morning the students are running it by themselves, and he just overseas it for content. Gary Talocco stated I would need to speak with the students to determine what the "thought" or "phrase of the day" was on the day of the incident. Gary Talocco was defensive and stated he had been interviewed twice before but not on this subject.

The rebel News Network broadcasts are not recorded, so no record of what actually was broadcast is available.

I spoke with Zach Rissmiller who is a senior and a member of the advanced video production class.

Rissmiller is the Director of the RNN.

Zach Rissmiller DOB 11-3-80

4430 W. Jameson Place, Littleton CO 80128

H-303-973-0821

Rissmiller confirmed that no tape was made of the show on Tuesday or any of the shows the previous week. Rissmiller stated they had been joking around with the fact that April 20th is the marijuana smoking day. The show had made reference to the "international day to smoke marijuana" as he put it and the jokes were about marijuana. Rissmiller was not sure what the phrase of the day had been but he had wanted to use "You don't want to be here today 4/20 4/20 4/20" Making reference to the 20th being a marijusna smokeing day. He is unsure of what phrase was actually used. Rissmiller stated the show made no reference to Hitler, and he was unaware it was Hitler's birthday until after the incident. He stated the broadcasts are done without scripts and much of the broadcast is similar day to day so only minimal notes are used and are not saved. Rissmiller stated when the incident took place he was supposed to be in marketing class but had gone to Taco Bell with Dave Macone for an early lunch.

I spoke with John Flemming who is a member of the video production class, responsible for the RNN broadcasts.

John Flemming is responsible for the audio for the RNN. Flemming stated he remembered the phrase of the day to be "How can they expect us to be in school today." During the incident Flemming was in the Tech lab. He heard what he thought were fireworks and possibly a senior prank. The fire alarms also went off about the same time. Flemming and other students started to exit the room at the direction of Mr. Tucker, a teacher, and ran out a north door of the school, by Clement park. They then climbed the fence by the smokers pit and continued to the parking lot at Clement park. After Flemming climbed the fence, he thought he heard bombs going off. Flemming stated he had been in video class first semester with Eric Harris, but they were not friends. According to Flemming, Harris would occasionally show up in video class this semester. Sometimes Dylan Kliebold would be with him but Flemming did not feel either was actually enrolled in the class. Flemming stated he did remember seeing a music video that Eric Harris had done as a project the first semester. The video was very violent and had clips from Terminator and Starship Troopers and other very bloody gun battles. Flemming stated he thought it was a little violent but did not think much of it at the time. Flemming is unaware where a copy of this music video is.

I spoke with Eric Veik who is a member of the video production class, responsible for the RNN broadcasts.

Eric Veik DOB 9-7-82

6222 West Fremont Drive, Littleton CO 80128

H-720-981-0553

Erik Veik stated that he had already been interviewed by a Jefferson County Sheriff's Department investigator, and an Arvada detective, but could not remember their names.

Eric Veik was in charge of the graphics for the RNN on the day of the incident. He stated that the phrase was initially something like, "Quit your Bitchin". Veik could not remember who came up with the original phrase. Veik stated he changed the phrase of the day because he did not feel the original phrase was appropriate. Veik made the phrase "How can you expect us to stay in school on a day like today?" Veik actually typed in the phrase to the graphics generator and stated that he often "cleaned up" the phrases. Veik stated the phrases are not approved by anyone and the whole broadcast is left up to the students to keep within limits. Veik stated he had come up with the phrase because the weather had been bad for some time and was expected to be very nice.

I spoke with Ryan Selchert who is a member of the video production class, responsible for the RNN broadcasts.

Ryan Selchert DOB 11-6-80

7923 south Lamar Court, Littleton CO 80128

H-303-979-8690

Selchert was part of the RNN broadcast and operated a camera on the day of the incident, as he normally did. Selchert stated he had already been interviewed but could not remember by who. Ryan was concerned about a "Spirit Video that he had been in charge of and was a "Friday Feature" on the RNN. This video involved Dan Holsie, Mike Vandania, Nik Romanyshan and Eric Harris. The video involved a student depicting an anonymous other team, running down a hill in the park (actually filmed at Clement park) and being beaten up by Columbine students. Selchert states the video is probably in the video production area or in his backpack. He also added on Monday April 19th, 1999 he was walking with some friends near the Library and saw Eric Harris. Selchert stated Harris appeared to be looking around and Selchert asked Harris "What's up?". Harris responded "Planning for tomorrow." Selchert thought Harris was just planning for another video and kept on walking, with no further conversation with Harris. Selchert stated he had already given a complete statement to another detective.

Gary Talocco provided a list of his video students, but did not have an actual list of those present for the Rebel News Network broadcast on April 20, 1999. Talocco stated that the students are not assigned to specific jobs for the broadcast and that it is voluntary and they "...pretty much run it themselves."
