DESCRIPTION OF ACTIVITY:

This report will document the interview of Marvin Miller, an FFL and past vendor at Tanner Gun Shows in Denver, CO.

SYNOPSIS:

On May 4, 1999, SA's Jeffery Brouse and Jay Dobyns interviewed Marvin Miller at his place of business as well as his residence. Also present during the interview at his residence was his wife, Alisa Miller.

NARRATIVE:

1. On May 3, 1999, SA's Brouse and Dobyns were assigned an investigative lead by Special Agent Marcus Motte. That lead referenced a bank card purchase by Mark Manes on 8/2/98 from "Eagle Enterprise" in Westminster, CO, in the amount of $491.00. Information provided by Manes during previous interviews indicated that on 8/2/98, Manes purchased a Intratec, Model TEC-DC9, 9mm pistol, serial number D076305 from a possible firearms dealer at the Tanner Gun Show on or about 8/2/98, and that the information referenced in the bank card purchase was related to that handgun purchase.
2. A check of ATF listings pertaining to Federal Firearms Licensees (FFL's) in Colorado showed a FFL with the business name of Eagle Enterprise, 6301 W. 44th Ave., Wheatridge, CO, 80033, listed to Marvin M. Miller. Additional records checks showed Marvin Miller residing at 8660 Lamar Dr., Arvada, CO, 80003, telephone (303)420-3861.
3. On May 4, 1999, SA's Brouse and Dobyns contacted Marvin Miller at his business address and interviewed him concerning his firearms business as well as the possibility of his involvement related to the 8/2/98 handgun purchase by Manes. During the interview, Miller advised the following: that he has a private security type business in which he teaches handgun safety and operation to various security firms; that he has had two different FFL's over the past years, but currently had only one active FFL; that he does not sell a large volume of firearms and generally sells most of his firearms to his students; that to his recollection, he did not think he had ever sold a Intratec TEC-9 type pistol to anyone; that he has not had a table at the Tanner Gun Show in over four years; that during the past two years he has not had the capability of processing charge cards related to gun sales; that he did not recognize the names Brenda Miller or Glen Miller (who in the past rented tables at the Tanner Gun Show); and that he did not attend the Tanner Gun Show, nor sell a Intratec TEC-DC9 to anyone at the Tanner Gun Show on or about 8/2/98. Miller then advised that he kept his firearms records, including his "bound book" at his residence, and when asked, offered to allow SA's Brouse and Dobyne to follow him to his residence and examine the bound book.

4. After SA's Brouse and Dobyne followed Miller to his residence, Miller presented his bound book and various other FFL related records for examination. SA Dobyne examined the records and bound book, and, after the interview, advised that he saw no entries related to any TEC-9 type-weapons, nor the following individuals: Spain, Choate, Russell, Manes, or Anderson.
5. During the records examination, SA Brouse observed Miller's FFL issued by ATF. The FFL license was an 01 Dealer license, number 5-84-001-01-9J-36289, with the address of PO Box 954, Arvada, CO, 80001. In addition, SA Brouse was shown Miller's old Merchant Card with Master Card and Visa. The numbers on the card appeared as follows:

Acct # 106 673 68
Eagle Enterprises
370 00002103325 RMBC5

6. Prior to departing Miller's residence, Miller advised that his business, Eagle Enterprise, had been in operation under the same name for several years, and that he routinely received phone calls and mail for other businesses with the same or similar names. He then mentioned one business in particular in which his business was confused with, Eagle International, advising that they use to manufacture high capacity magazines, and that he believed they went out of business several years ago when the Crime Bill restricted the manufacture of high-capacity magazines.

DESCRIPTION OF ACTIVITY:

Interview with Mel Bernstein, owner of Dragon Arms Inc., a Class III Federal Firearms Licensee.

SYNOPSIS:

On 4/27/99, SA's Jeff Brouse and Jay Dobyns showed Mel Bernstein photo line-ups containing photographs of Eric Harris, Dylan Klebold and Robyn Anderson.

NARRATIVE:

- On 4/27/99, SA's Jeff Brouse and Jay Dobyns met Mel Bernstein (W/M DOB 12/7/45), at his place of business, Dragon Arms Inc., located at 1200 Dragonman Drive, Colorado Springs, Colorado, 80929, (719) 683-2200, and showed him three separate photo line-ups containing pictures of Eric Harris, Dylan Klebold and Robyn Anderson. Bernstein had previously reported to ATF that five or six weeks ago four young white males, some of which were wearing dark colored trench coats, accompanied by a young white female, attempted to straw-purchase some firearms from his business. (Note: See ATF 3120.2 under case number 785020-99-0001, report number 03, for more details concerning this incident.)
- While showing Bernstein the photo line-ups, he advised the following: in the photo line-up containing a photo of Robyn Anderson, he identified photo number 2 as a possible; in the photo line-up containing a photo of Eric Harris, he identified photo number 3 as 95% possible; in the photo line-up containing a photo of Dylan Klebold, he identified photo number 1 as 90% possible. After he looked at each photo line-up, he initialed the number next to the photograph he identified and then indicated his choices on Photo Lineup form JCSD/I 614, which, along with the original photo line-ups, were retained by SA's Brouse and Dobyns.

Interview with Mel Bernstein and Terry Flannell, owners of Dragon Arms Inc., a Class III Federal Firearms Licensee.

SYNOPSIS:

On 4/27/99, SA's Jeff Brouse and Jay Dobyns interviewed Mel Bernstein and his wife, Terry Flannell regarding a fax copy photograph of a young woman sent to him by an unknown media person.

NARRATIVE:

- On 4/27/99, SA's Jeff Brouse and Jay Dobyns interviewed Mel Bernstein (W/M DOB 12/7/45), and Terry Flannell (W/F DOB 7/8/59) at their place of business located at 1200 Dragonman Drive, Colorado Springs, Colorado, 80929, (719) 683-2200, regarding a fax copy photograph of a young woman, which was sent to him by an unknown media person. Bernstein is the owner of Dragon Arms Inc., a Federally licensed, Class III business, under FFL number 584-021-01-9K-36349.
- During the interview, Flannell advised that at approximately 11:00AM, on 4/26/99, she received a phone call from a reporter possibly from Channel 9. This unknown reporter advised that he wanted to send a fax copy of a photograph of a female they believed the police were questioning who may have been involved in purchasing firearms for Eric Harris and Dylan Klebold. Flannell further advised that the reporter wanted Mel Bernstein to look at the photo and advise the media if the person in the photo was a female who was possibly in Bernstein's business five or six weeks ago with four young males wearing trench coats, who attempted to purchase some firearms. (Note: See ATF 3120.2, under Case Number 785020-99-0001, Report 03, for additional information concerning this event). Flannell stated that shortly after the conversation with the reporter, a photo of a young white female was faxed to the business. Once Flannell received the fax, she refused to show it to Mel Bernstein because she did not want to influence his memory - as she expected ATF to show Bernstein a photo line-up possibly containing a photo of the young woman. Flannell further advised that she destroyed the fax photo during the course of the day without showing it to Bernstein.

3. Mel Bernstein then advised that later on the afternoon of 4/26/99, another fax copy photograph of a young white female was faxed to his business. Unlike the first photograph, which his wife Terry Flannell did not allow him to view, he saw this fax photo. Bernstein stated that after he looked at the photograph, he took the photograph to his wife, and told her that he was positive the person in the fax photograph was the same female who was with four young males who attempted to straw-purchase firearms five or six weeks previously. Bernstein further advised that he did not talk to any media representatives after he viewed the fax photo.
4. SA Brouse then had Bernstein initial and date the fax photo and then took custody of the fax photo leaving Flannell a copy of ATF F 3240.1 (Document Receipt).

DESCRIPTION OF ACTIVITY:

Report of Interview

SYNOPSIS:

Report of interview with Jessica Lynne Miklich, DOB: 9/15/79, 5190 Bow Mar Drive, Littleton, Colorado, 80123, conducted on 5/3/99.

NARRATIVE:

1. On May 5, 1999, at approximately 4:15 p.m., Jessica Miklich was interviewed at the Bureau of ATF office located at 1961 Stout, Rm. 630, Denver, CO. The interview was conducted by Special Agent Larry Krisl and present during the interview was Jefferson County Assistant District Attorney Brian Boatright, and Mr. Daniel Recht, attorney for the Miklich family.
2. Miklich stated that she resides with her parents at the Littleton, CO, address above. Miklich had recently been injured when her vehicle hydroplaned and rolled over during a rainstorm the weekend previous to the interview. Due to this accident and debilitating injuries, Miklich stated that she will be at this residence and can be contacted in the future at 303-734-0406. The parents of Miklich accompanied her to the ATF office but were asked by Jessica and her attorney Recht, to not be present during the interview.
3. Miklich stated that she has known Mark Manes since approximately February of 1999. Miklich had worked as a barmaid at the Kilt and Candle Pub in Littleton, CO, and met Manes when he was a customer. Miklich described the relationship that she and Manes have as being very close and that they tell each other everything.
4. Miklich said she first met Eric Harris and Dylan Klebold on March 6, 1999. She distinctly remembers this date since she purchased a new car on March 5, 1999, and the following day she was with Manes when they met Harris and Klebold. On March 6, 1999, Miklich said that she picked up Manes at his residence. Manes brought a .45 caliber pistol and ammo as well as a Mini-30 carbine and ammo. They then drove for approximately 20 minutes to a pre-arranged location in the Rampart foothills area southwest of Littleton, CO. Manes provided directions to this area as he had shot firearms at this location previously. Upon arriving at the area, Miklich parked her vehicle next to a dark-colored Nissan Maxima which Miklich and Manes knew was owned by Phil Duran. Miklich and Manes then followed a trail for about 10 minutes until arriving at the location where other individuals were already shooting.

5. Upon arriving at this location, Miklich is introduced to Eric Harris and Dylan Klebold. Phil Duran was present and Miklich already knew him since Duran and Manes were close friends. Manes took his firearms out their cases and Manes and Miklich took turns shooting the Mini-30 carbine and .45 pistol. Miklich said that they shot at bowling pins and trees.
6. Miklich said that Harris and Klebold fired all of the firearms which they had brought with them. Miklich said that Harris and Klebold had two sawed-off shotguns hidden behind a rock. Miklich described these shotguns as having short barrels and the stocks sawed off to a pistol grip. One of the shotguns was a double-barrel and the other was a pump action. Miklich fired one of the shotguns but didn't remember which one as she only fired one round and didn't reload or work the action. Miklich said that Harris had a cut on his hand which he said was the result of shooting one of the sawed-off shotguns.
7. Harris, Klebold, Duran, Manes and Miklich all fired a TEC 9 pistol which Manes told Miklich was sold by Manes to Klebold. Miklich said that they fired the pistol at a close range at bowling pins and trees. All close range shooting was at items about 6-10 feet away from the shooters.
8. Harris and Klebold fired a rifle which Miklich described as being all black in color and resembling the description of a Highpoint rifle. Miklich said this was fired at a greater distance and appeared to be quite accurate.
9. Harris and Klebold fired slugs from the shotguns and Miklich was shocked at the amount of damage that resulted from the slugs.
10. Miklich described Harris as being a "little weird" but that he seemed to her to be "fairly nice". Harris was wearing a black cap with a rock band logo, black pants, black trench coat, and had hair that was longer than in the recent photos released by the media. She described him as being about 5'10" - 5'11" when compared to Manes who is about 6'3". Miklich thought Harris looked about 17 years old.
11. Miklich described Klebold as being as also wearing a black cap and pants. Miklich thought that Klebold also appeared to be "nice" and didn't have much conversation with either Harris or Klebold. Klebold also appeared to be about 17 years of age to Miklich.
12. Miklich stated that Phil Duran was videotaping Harris, Klebold, Manes, and Miklich as they are shooting on this date. The equipment had come from the Columbine High School. Miklich said Manes had a copy of this video and that about one week after this shooting incident she and Manes watched the video at her residence.

13. On April 19, 1999, Miklich was with Manes at his residence when Manes received a phone call on his cell phone from Eric Harris. Manes told Miklich that Harris wanted Manes to purchase 100 rounds of 9mm ammo. Manes and Miklich left within minutes of this phone call and went to the Kmart on south Wadsworth. Miklich said that Manes purchased 2 boxes of 9mm ammunition in white boxes and 1 box of .45 caliber ammunition in a white box. Manes paid for the ammunition with his credit card.
14. After leaving the Kmart, Manes called Harris by using a programmed number in the memory of his cell phone. Manes advised Harris that they had the ammo he had requested and to meet them at Manes' residence. When Manes and Miklich arrived at the residence, Harris was already there waiting for them in the driveway. Miklich did not remember seeing a vehicle or what Harris was wearing. Manes told Harris that the ammunition had cost more than what was expected. Harris said that was not a problem and Miklich said Harris paid Manes about $24.00 in cash for the 2 boxes of 9mm ammo. Manes asked Harris if he was going shooting that night as it was about 9:00 p.m. Harris replied, "no, I'm going shooting tomorrow". Harris told Manes that he was joining the Marines soon and Miklich said that they tried to talk him out of enlisting. Harris left the residence with the ammo.
15. On April 20, 1999, Miklich heard about the incident occurring at Columbine High School and tried to reach Manes. When she finally contacted him, Manes told Miklich he was very upset because the media was showing that Harris and Klebold had been responsible for the massacre. Manes said that he was worried because he sold the TEC 9 and ammo to "those kids -Klebold and Harris". Miklich said that they both felt very distraught that they had purchased the 9mm ammo just the night before for Harris.
16. On April 21, 1999, Miklich borrowed the video from Manes which shows Harris, Klebold, Manes and Miklich shooting the firearms used during the massacre at Columbine High School on April 20, 1999. Miklich said that it now bothered her a great deal to view this video. Miklich said that Manes gave this video to his attorney.
17. Miklich provided the following information about the relationship of Phil Duran to Manes, Harris and Klebold. Miklich said that Duran had introduced Manes to Harris and Klebold at a Tanner gun show in Denver in January or February. The day that they all met is when Klebold later contacted Manes and came to his residence. Miklich said that Manes told her Klebold had paid half of the money to Manes for the TEC 9. Two weeks later, the remainder of the money owed to Manes was provided from Duran who was given the money from Harris and Klebold.

4. The firearm located in the rear area of the vehicle occupied by Stephens was in a blue pillow case with a plastic tube around it. The rifle was identified as a: High Point Firearms, Model 995, cal. 9mmx19, serial #A54177. Two magazines were located with the firearm as well as one box of Winchester 9mm ,115 grain, full metal jacket with twenty rounds missing. Stephens produced a receipt for the purchase of this firearm on May 19, 1999, from the Bargain Bin in Englewood, CO for $214.60. The firearm was taken into evidence by Deputy Puraty.
5. While being transported to the Jefferson County Detention Facility, Stephens told Deputy Puraty that he had attended Columbine High School for a brief period before dropping out. Stephens said that he was friends with Dylan Klebold.
6. Deputy Puraty advised investigators at the task force of the association of Stephens to Klebold, Manes and the possession of the High Point firearm.
7. At approximately 9:15 a.m. on 5/7/99, SA Krisl and JC30 Investigator Luciano interviewed Stephens at the Jefferson County Detention Facility. Stephens agreed to cooperate with investigators and answer questions regarding the Columbine investigation.
8. Stephens said that he knew Dylan Klebold from attending Columbine High School. Stephens had dropped out of school because of an admitted drug abuse problem. Stephens recently moved back to Colorado from Omaha, NE, approximately 2 weeks before the shooting incident. Stephens said that he had purchased the High Point carbine firearm on 5/19/99 and had gone to the Rampart area to fire the rifle. Stephens said that he had fired about 20 rounds through the rifle by shooting it at the ground up in this area.
9. Stephens said that he knew Mark Manes also from his association with Klebold but did not have much else to add concerning this association. Stephens said that he had been in Boulder, CO, on 5/20/99, and did not have any direct involvement with the incident.
10. Stephens told investigators that he was still tight with the associates of Klebold and Harris and that the rumors being discussed are strongly suggesting that other people were definitely involved in the incident. Stephens expressed a strong interest in providing any further information to investigators in the future regarding comments made by the associates about other individuals being involved.
11. Stephens was wearing a black t-shirt with the German words: "Einstuvze nde neu baten" which he stated was translated in English to "Destruction of new buildings". Stephens said that he understood there was a great deal of coincidence with his involvement to Klebold and Manes as well as the purchase of a High Point carbine on 5/19/99.

DESCRIPTION OF ACTIVITY:

Interview with Nathan Dykeman, an associate of Eric Harris and Dylan Klebold.

SYNOPSIS:

On April 23, 1999, ATF Special Agents Richard Putnam and Jon Mitchell were contacted by ATF Intelligence Officer Tristan Moreland in reference to conducting an interview with the FBI on Nathan Dykeman. Dykeman had already been interviewed and polygraphed by the FBI. Dykeman requested another interview with his biological father present. The interview took place at the Super 8 Hotel on W. Jefferson Avenue, Lakewood, Colorado.

NARRATIVE:

On April 23, 1998, ATF Special Agent Jon Mitchell and FBI Special Agent Paulette Brundage interviewed Nathan Dykeman, DOB/12-15-80, social security number 090-68-0236. Dykeman resides at 7973 W. Plymouth Place, Littleton, Colorado, telephone number 303-933-8460, with his mother Julie Good and his stepfather Victor Good. Present during the interview, was Dykeman's biological father Matthew Jody Dykeman, DOB/10-31-59, Florida drivers license D255-550-59-391-0. Matthew Dykeman resides at 3422 Pendleton Way, and O Lakes, Florida, telephone number 813-996-5088. Matthew Dykeman explained that he flew to Denver yesterday after Nathan Dykeman's stepfather flipped out on him. Nathan is currently staying with his biological father at the Super 8 Hotel. Matthew Dykeman provided copies to the agents of American On Line documents he had printed off the computer relating to Eric Harris and Dylan Klebold. These documents were turned over to the FBI agent. Nathan Dykeman gave the following information to the agents.

Dykeman has not had American On Line (AOL) for at least a year. His AOL screen name was "IceFuryX". He used to exchange e-mail with Eric Harris. He never exchanged e-mail with Dylan Klebold. Harris's E-mail address was "RebDomine" at one time and he also used "RebDoomer". He does not know what they meant. Harris used the nickname "Reb". Klebold used the nickname "Vodka" and at one time used the nickname "Voodooom". On the AOL documents received from Matthew Dykeman, Harris uses the phrase "Let God Sort It Out". This is a saying from a video game. Chris Morris's AOL name was "Grunt" with some numbers also associated with it. Dykeman does not remember the numbers because it has been a couple of years since he has sent anything to Morris.

The Columbine High School's prom was Saturday April 17, 1999. Dykeman went in a limo with other friends and their dates. The others included Dykeman's date Christine Epling, Dylan Klebold and his date Robin Anderson, Jessica Hughes and her date, who Dykeman did not know and does not remember his name, Kelly Brown and her date, who Dykeman did not know and did not know his name, Janna (LNU) and her date, who Dykeman did not know and did not know his name, and Monica (LNU) and her date, who Dykeman did not know and did not know his name. Dykeman did know that Kelly Brown's date was in his early 20's. Everyone met at Kelly Brown's house except Jessica and her date and Janna and her date. The limo first went to Kelly's house and then stopped at Janna's house and Jessica's house. At approximately 7:30 p.m. to 8:00 p.m., the limo dropped everyone off at Bella's, an Italian restaurant downtown. During dinner, Klebold wanted to have a smoke, so Dykeman and Klebold went outside. Klebold seemed normal to Dykeman and talked about his trip to Arizona he had just got back from. Klebold had been accepted to a school in Arizona. Dinner lasted until 9:30 p.m. or 10:00 p.m.

Eric Harris had tried to get a date, but was unable. He had asked a bunch of girls out but they turned him down. Dykeman had heard that he asked a Brandy (LNU) who was in Harris's and his video class, a Sabrina Cooley, and Katie (LNU), who is a sophomore or Junior. Harris' friend Mike Vandaneya (He was not sure of spelling) would know more about this. Dykeman is not sure if Harris asked out a Susan (LNU), but he spent the night of prom with her up until Harris showed up at the After Prom Party. Mike might know her last name.

Between 10:00 p.m. and 10:30 p.m., the limo dropped Dykeman and the others in the limo off at the dance, which was at the Denver Design Center. Dykeman did not talk to or see Klebold at the dance after they were dropped off. Dykeman hung around his friend Tim Kastle. The dance was over at midnight at which time they all returned to the limo. The limo stopped at Jessica's house and Janna's house then dropped Dykeman and the rest of them off at Kelly's house. Everyone then changed into jeans and took their own cars to the After Prom Party at Columbine High School. The After Prom Party is like a carnival that the parents put on for the students to keep them off the road on prom night. The After Prom Party lasted from midnight to 5:00 a.m. Klebold and his date Robin Anderson took her car to the party. Her car is a 2 door light blue Honda. Dykeman believes that the car is a late 80's or early 90's CRX. Dykeman and Christine were at the party for approximately 45 minutes before they saw Klebold and Robin at the black jack tables that were set up. Dykeman socialized some with Chris Morris and his date Nicole (LNU). Dykeman saw Eric Harris about 12:30 p.m. at the party. Dykeman did not see Harris or Klebold leave and did not see them after about 2:00 a.m., which is a rough guess by Dykeman. Dykeman hung around Tim Kastle and Christine most of the night. Dykeman and Christine were some of the last people to leave. Dykeman and Christine went to Denny's restaurant with an Alisa Sechler and a Derek (LNU) after the party. After breakfast Christine and Dykeman went up to the mountain to watch the sun rise. On the way to the mountains they went by Klebold's house. Dykeman does not remember whether Klebold's car was there. Dykeman pointed the house out to Christine. Dykeman was driving his dad's black Ford Explorer. Dykeman's own car is a 1975 Ford F-250 pick up truck. Christine had to be home by 7:00 a.m. Sunday morning because she had to play the bells for 3 church services. Dykeman slept at Christine's house while she went to church. Dykeman went to the 3rd church service. Dykeman and Christine went back to his house after church. Christine slept while Dykeman returned his tuxedo and got some Kentucky Fried Chicken for Christine and him. At approximately 6:00 p.m., Dykeman and Christine went to her house, so she could do her homework. After Christine finished her homework, they watched some television until approximately 10:00 p.m. to 10:15 p.m. when Dykeman went home. When he got home his stepfather and mother were there. Dykeman had no contact with Harris or Klebold after the After Prom Party.

REPORT NUMBER:

On Monday April 19, 1999, at approximately 6:15 a.m., Dykeman arrived at his bowling class at the Bellview Bowling Alley. The class starts at 6:30 a.m. Chris Morris, Eric Harris, Dylan Klebold, and Dustin Gordin are in the class with Dykeman. Gordin is a friend of Dykeman and an associate of Harris and Klebold. Morris, Harris, and Klebold were all in bowling class that morning. They did not talk much about the prom. At approximately 7:15 a.m., Klebold, Harris, Morris, Gordin and Dykeman went to the King Soopers near Pierce and Coal Mine. Morris drove separate, Klebold and Harris drove together, Gordin drove separate, and Dykeman drove separate to King Soopers. Gordin drives a Green and primer 1974 Chevrolet Chevelle. Klebold's car is an early 80's black BMW. Harris' car is a gray 1989 Honda Prelude. Dykeman is not sure what car Harris and Klebold were in that day. At approximately 8:00 a.m., Dykeman headed to school. Harris had video class with Dykeman at Columbine High School. This was Dykeman's second class after bowling.

Harris kept falling asleep in video class and the teacher told him to go to the nurse's office to sleep. Dykeman's third class was gym and Harris' third class was philosophy. Dykeman's 4th class was creative writing. Harris and Klebold have this class with him. The teacher did not arrive on time to open up the class, so Harris and Klebold skipped class. After his creative writing class, Dykeman went home for lunch. Harris and Klebold usually leave during lunch time. He thinks they might go to Black Jack's Pizza for lunch. Both his stepfather and mother were home when he got there. Dykeman got back to school around 11:50 a.m. He saw Christine and walked to psychology class with her. Both Harris's and Klebold's cars were in the parking lot in their assigned spots. Dykeman also saw the cars in the parking lot before lunch. Harris, Klebold, Kastle, Nick Foss, Dykeman, Christine, and Sabrina (LNU) were in this class. This is the same Sabrina which Harris had asked out to prom. According to Dykeman, Kastle is one the students that was held at gun point during the incident. After this class, which ends at 12:40 p.m., Dykeman is finished with school for the day. He works at the Firestone at Pierce and Canyon, and had to be there to clock in by 1:00 p.m. He finished work between 6:00 p.m. and 6:30 p.m. Dykeman thinks he went home and showered before going over to Christine's house. He got to Christine's at approximately 7:00 p.m. He left Christine's house between 10:00 p.m. and 10:30 p.m. He went home and said good night to his mother and stepfather and went to bed.

Tuesday April 20, 1999, Dykeman and Morris got to bowling class at approximately 6:00 a.m. Harris and Klebold never showed up. After class Morris went to McDonald's for breakfast. Dykeman went to the video room at Columbine High School to see if anyone was there that might want to go to King Soopers with him for breakfast. No one was in the video room, so he went to King Soopers by himself. He sat in the parking lot at King Soopers eating and listening to his car stereo. He got to school at approximately 8:00 a.m. and talked to the video teacher for awhile. Harris and Klebold never showed up for class. Kastle was in class. Harris and Klebold did not show up for creative writing class either. At lunch time Dykeman walked to the parking lot where he saw Christine. Christine drove off in her car. As Dykeman drove out of the senior parking lot, he saw Harris walking towards the double doors leading into the cafeteria. By the direction Harris was going, it appeared to Dykeman that Harris might have come from the junior parking lot. Dykeman did not see or look for Harris's car in the parking lot. Harris had on a black trench coat, dark sunglasses, and was carrying something in his left hand, possibly his black computer bag. Robin Anderson parks her car in the senior parking lot, but in the corner next to the junior lot. Dykeman does not remember seeing a back pack or anything else being carried on Harris' back. Dykeman said he was not positive it was Harris, but was pretty sure. Dykeman went to lunch at his house. His mother and stepfather were there. He headed back to the school at approximately 11:40 a.m. He has to be in class at 11:50 a.m. When Dykeman got to Pierce and Coal Mine, he noticed fire trucks and thought there was an accident. Dykeman tried to go around another way to get to the school, but there were more police and could not get through. He flashed his lights and got this girl he knows who was driving in front of him to stop. She told him that two men with trench coats went into the school shooting. Dykeman said he got a feeling that it could be Harris and Klebold. Dykeman turned his car around and headed towards home. He saw Christine driving and waved to her to follow. They drove to his house. Dykeman told his parents it could be Harris and Klebold that were the gun men. Dykeman, his mother, his stepfather and Christine watched the television and the school from the second floor deck. Dykeman called Klebold's dad at home. Klebold's dad is a geologist and works out of his home. Dykeman asked Klebold's dad if he had seen Dylan. Klebold's father said that Dylan was at school. Dykeman informed Klebold's dad that Dylan had not been at school all day and what he had heard about the shooting.

Klebold is involved in a Fantasy Baseball game with Andrew Beard, Adam Sands, Cliff Andrus, Chad Laughlin, and Tim Kastle. Dykeman was involved last year and won the money pool. Fantasy Baseball is all done on paper and involves drafting players and keeping score by how well the real players do that season. Chad Laughlin runs the game and his telephone number is 347-2421. Kastle's telephone number is 932-1936. Dykeman does not know the others telephone numbers.

About two weeks prior to the shooting, Dykeman saw Harris with a video in their video class. The video was of Harris, Klebold, Phil Duran, Duran's best friend Mark (LNU), and Mark (LNU) girlfriend, who Dykeman does not know and does not know her name. Duran, Mark, and the girlfriend are all in their twenties. Dykeman knows Duran because he used to deliver to the Black Jack when Dykeman worked there. Harris was editing the tape, when Dykeman heard gun fire. Dykeman walked over to Harris and inquired about the video. Harris told him that he and the people in the video went up shooting in Rampart, which is somewhere up North. Harris and Klebold were shooting a double barrel sawed off shotgun, a pump action shotgun, and a semi automatic pistol similar to an UZI. Phil and Mark were shooting a semi automatic assault type rifle which was all black. Dykeman already knew that the UZI type pistol and the double barrel shotgun belonged to Klebold from earlier conversation they had. Harris told him the pump action shotgun was his. Mark and the girlfriend were also shooting a large semi-automatic pistol. Dykeman watched the video for about 5 minutes. Dykeman believes that Harris would have made the video with a school camera he had checked out. According to Dykeman, Gary Tallocco (Dykeman not sure of spelling) the video teacher had to know about the video and other students saw the video including Mike Vendaneya. Duran is over 6 feet tall, with longer dark hair, no facial hair, and no earrings. Duran drives a mid 90's black Ford Taurus SHO with tinted windows. Duran is at least 20 and is a Columbine high school drop out. Mark (LNU) is a biker type, medium height, medium build, with long straggly dark brown or black hair. He possibly has a go-tee. Mark's girlfriend was short and thin with long dark hair. Harris edited this video for a couple weeks and also made another video for a class project. Klebold, Harris, Vendaneya, and Eric Vike, were in the second video. The second video showed the four of them driving up to Vendaneya's house in Vike's car, which is possibly a Pontiac Grand Am. The four get out of the car and pull out what Dykeman believed to be fake guns, BB guns, and possibly real guns out of the trunk of the car. The four then have a mission briefing, before going into the house hunting possessed clothes. Harris took gun shot sounds from the first video and dubbed them into the second video, which was shown to the class for a grade.

One day in December 1998 or January 1999, Dykeman went to Black Jacks for lunch. He was still working at Black Jacks at this time. Phil Duran was out back talking to Klebold. Dykeman saw Klebold pay Duran what Dykeman believes to be about $100.00 in twenty dollar bills. Dykeman was standing about 10 to 15 feet away when this happened. Dykeman asked Klebold about the money after Duran left because he thought it was for drugs. Dykeman does not tolerate drug use with his friends and stated he would go to a friends parents if he knew they were doing drugs. Klebold told Dykeman that he had bought a shotgun and a pistol from Duran. Klebold told Dykeman that the UZI type pistol was a 9mm. Klebold was seventeen at this time and Dykeman asked why he didn't wait till he was eighteen to buy the firearms. Klebold told him he really wanted them. He said he had been saving his money for awhile. Klebold never had any money to do anything with Dykeman for about six months prior to this, because Klebold was saving his money. Klebold told Dykeman that he was the only person he had told other than Harris. He had not even told his best friend Zach Heckler. Klebold and Heckler were not as close at this time because Heckler had a girlfriend and went his separate ways. Klebold told Dykeman not to tell anyone. Klebold told him it was his second payment and he had paid the bulk of the money already, which was a couple hundred dollars. Klebold told Dykeman that Harris was with him when he got the guns. Klebold told Dykeman that he had purchased any other guns. Harris had told Klebold that he could get guns from Duran and his friend Mark (LNU). Dykeman believes it was on a weekend before a gun show in December 1998, that Harris mentioned that he and Klebold were going to a gun show with Duran. It was a local gun show, but Harris did not mention the name of the show. Dykeman never heard any talk about going to a gun store. Klebold told Dykeman that his parents would not find the firearms buried in his dirty clothes in his closet. Dykeman did not know who sawed off the shotgun Klebold purchased.

Dykeman does not know how Harris got his pump action shotgun. Harris went to the surplus store on Broadway a lot to shop. Dykeman does not know where Harris kept his shotgun and only knew he had one after seeing the video. Dykeman never saw any Glock firearms or heard any talk of any Glock firearms. He never heard any talk of purchasing ammunition either.

In the beginning of the Summer of 1997, Dykeman went with Harris and Klebold to a culvert that ran under Wadsworth between Ken Caryl and Chatfield Reservoir. They lit off a CO2 device that Harris had made out of a CO2 cartridge he filled with black powder and stuck a fireworks fuse in. The device also had gray duct tape on it. A few days after this Dykeman was with Klebold when he drilled out some CO2 cartridges to make them easier to fill with powder. Klebold did this because Harris had told him it was hard to fill them with powder having the smaller hole. Dykeman thinks Klebold drilled one or two of CO2 devices.

Dykeman saw a coffee can containing black powder in Harris' bedroom around the end of the Summer of 1997. Harris kept the can on a shelf on top of his desk. Klebold and Harris worked for a Fireworks stand at the corner of Platte Canyon and Kendall that summer. They received unsold fireworks as part of their pay. They took the powder out of the fireworks and put it in the coffee can. Dykeman also saw approximately 50 feet of green cannon fuse coiled up and hanging on Harris' wall. Dykeman thinks Harris bought the fuse at Old Glory, which is a fireworks warehouse in northern Denver. Harris told Dykeman that the fuse burns at so many inches a second. Dykeman did not see any pipes at this time. Harris always had fireworks and BB guns as long as Dykeman has known him.

In the Fall of 1997, Harris told Dykeman that his mother had found a pipe bomb in his closet. Harris told Dykeman that his father put the pipe bomb in his (Father's) closet because he did not know what to do with it. Harris took Dykeman to his parents closet and showed him the pipe bomb. It was approximately 2 inches in diameter and approximately 8 inches in length. It had a green fuse coming out the end with gray duct tape on it. Dykeman is not sure why he used the duct tape. A couple weeks after this Dykeman saw one or two more pipe bombs in a shoe box in Harris' closet. One of them was about 1 inch in diameter and about 8 inches in length. If there was another pipe bomb, Dykeman said it was skinnier. Harris told Dykeman during the time Dykeman saw the first pipe bomb that he bought the pipe at a hardware store on Wadsworth.

In the Fall of 1997, Chris Morris and Dykeman were at Black Jacks during the school lunch break. Harris and Klebold were there with another CO2 device. Harris had found some white powder in some fireworks that he wanted to experiment with. Harris lit the device and threw it down a pipe behind Black Jacks. This one was louder than the previous one they had lit.

A couple of days after the 1998 Superbowl, Harris told Dykeman that Klebold and he went to Deer Creek Canyon and Wadsworth and lit off a pipe bomb. Harris told Dykeman that it made a large noise and blew off a couple chunks of rock.

Harris and Klebold told Dykeman sometime around the Summer of 1998, or earlier that they had set off a pipe bomb in a field down off Wadsworth, somewhere south of 470. Klebold and Dykeman never talked about any timing devices for the pipe bombs. Both Klebold and Dykeman had read the Anarchist Cookbook off the Internet. Dykeman saw it on Klebold's computer and Klebold mentioned that he sent it to Harris. This was around the Summer or Fall of 1997.

Dykeman met Harris in Spanish class in eighth grade, after Dykeman moved to Littleton. Klebold and Harris were already friends before this.

Dykeman and Harris once had a falling out over Dykeman's girlfriend Christine. Christine had wanted to date Harris, but he was not interested, so Dykeman asked her out. On their first date Harris tried to cause trouble and they had a falling out over this for a while.

Harris and Klebold had the list of everyone's locker and combinations at Columbine High School. Klebold had hacked into the school's computer in his sophomore or junior year. Students keep their same locker through all the grades. Harris and Klebold could have made trips in and out of school all day long because they are students there.

Agent Brundage asked Dykeman the following names to see if he knew them:

David Caravan - Did not know.
Tadd Bowles - Friend of Chris Morris, but he does not really know.
Robert Perry - Chris Morris had problems with him in the past.
Robin Anderson - Always wanted to go out with Klebold, but he never had a girlfriend.
Cory Friesen - Son of one of the teachers at Columbine High School. Chris Morris and he are good friends.
Joseph Stair - Not a friend of Klebold, Harris, or Morris. Stair's best friend is Brian Seargent.
John Savage - Knows name, but can't place the face.

The only fake identification that Dykeman knew anyone had was Chad Laughlin.

DESCRIPTION OF ACTIVITY:

Report of Interview

SYNOPSIS:

Report of interview with Robyn Anderson, DOB 11/4/80, on April 24, 1999 at the Arvada Police Department, 8101 Ralston Road, Arvada, Colorado, 80001.

NARRATIVE:

- On April 24, 1999, Robyn Anderson was interviewed by S/A Motte and Arvada Detective James Vonderohe at the Arvada Police Department. Present at the interview was Anderson's attorney Michael Root. The interview was recorded and videotaped and this information was relayed to Anderson and her attorney.
- Anderson stated that in December 1998, on a Sunday, she was contacted via telephone by Dylan Klebold who asked her if she would be willing to get them into the gun show at I-25 and 58th Avenue. Anderson stated that she would and Klebold and she Harris came to her house to pick her up and bring her to the gun show. Anderson stated that it appeared from conversation with Harris and Klebold that they had been at the gun show the day before looking around. This would have been Saturday. Anderson further states that Klebold and Harris picked her up at approximately 10:00 am.

Anderson stated that Klebold and Harris had been searching the gun show for private dealers so that they would not have to complete any paperwork. According to Anderson, after entering the gun show, Klebold and Harris went directly to a private dealer. The dealer asked Klebold and Harris if they brought someone 18 years old this time. Klebold and Harris stated that they had. Anderson states that she showed her drivers license to this individual and after reviewing it, handed it back. According to Anderson, Harris or Klebold asks the individual if he has anything shorter then the shotgun they were looking at and the individual tells them they can cut the barrel down. The individual then obtains a tape measure and shows them how far they can cut down the barrel. Anderson explained to S/A Motte that the gun was long and the individual was saying they could cut it down to the first barrel ring. As if to cut it down to the shortest length of not less than 18 inches. Anderson stated that the price of the shotgun was over $100.00 but less than $300.00. Anderson stated that Klebold paid for this shotgun from money that he had in his wallet and that this shotgun was for Klebold himself.

4. Anderson described this individual as being an older white male, gray-white beard with grey hair, heavy-set. Anderson stated that this individual remained seating the whole time of the transaction. No receipt was given for the shotgun purchase.
 5. Anderson states that they walked around the gun show for awhile looking for private dealers. They made contact with another private dealer and Eric Harris negotiated for a double-barreled shotgun. According to Anderson, Harris' money was clasped together with a large notebook binder clip and located in Anderson's purse. Anderson does not recall if she paid for the shotgun or if she gave the money to Harris to pay for the shotgun. The dealer did not ask for any identification nor was a receipt produced.
 6. Anderson describes the individual as somewhat balding with a round face. She could not recall any other features. Anderson further stated that this shotgun was for Eric Harris.
 7. Anderson stated that the three of them wandered around the gun show somemore and contacted another private dealer. This dealer was selling a black rifle. This individual asked to see identification and after viewing it and checking with a party at the next table for verification, gave it back to Anderson. Anderson stated that the rifle was in a box on the table with two magazine clips. Anderson stated that this purchase was transacted like the previous one with Eric Harris. Anderson had Harris' money on the binder clip and either she paid for the rifle or Harris did. She does not recall. Anderson could not describe this private dealer. Anderson stated that no receipt was produced by this private dealer.
 8. Anderson further stated that Harris and Klebold bought more ammunition clips and ammunition from another individuals table. Harris also purchased a folding knife at another table.
 9. Anderson stated that Eric Harris named one of the firearms purchased Arlene.
 10. Anderson was asked if she knew of any other attempts to purchase firearms by Eric Harris and Dylan Klebold to which she replied the she did not.
- Anderson was asked to draw on a diagram the locations of the private dealers and she complied by drawing in S/A Motte's notebook.
12. Anderson stated that after the purchases were made, she, Klebold and Harris left the gun show and proceeded to Eric Harris' house. They dropped Harris off with his shotgun, rifle and merchandise and proceeded to her house. Anderson states that she drove her car to Dylan Klebold's house and Klebold drove his car into the garage. Klebold placed the shotgun under his jacket, grabbed his bag of merchandise and went up to his room. Anderson states that Klebold attempts to place the shotgun in a dresser drawer in his bedroom but it does not fit. He then tries to place it behind the toilet roll dispenser after it is removed but it does not fit. Anderson believes that it is eventually placed in Klebold's closet.

13. Anderson states that she recalls the date of the purchase of these firearms as being in December because she and Klebold were planning to study Calculus at his house because the finals for that class was December 16th and 17th with a make-up day of December 18th, 1999. Anderson believes that the date of the purchase would have to be December 13th, 1999.
14. Anderson was shown a picture from the newspaper which depicts the 9mm carbine and stated that it is the rifle purchased by Eric Harris.

TITLE OF INVESTIGATION:

REPORT NUMBER:

4. Manes stated that he recalls purchasing the TEC-9 on Saturday, August 2, 1998 and at the time of the purchase he was accompanied by his friend Brian Distal and Distal's older brother or step-brother. Manes does not recall the name of Distal's older brother/step-brother. Manes stated that both individuals were present at the purchase of the TEC-9. Manes stated that he purchased the TEC-9 for $491.00.
5. Manes described the individual that he purchased the TEC-9 from as being in his late 60's, short grey hair and could not recall if this individual had any facial hair. Manes stated that he could identify this individual if he saw him again. Manes stated that this individual had one table at the gun show and had 3 or 4 TEC-9's on display. Manes does not recall any other individual at this individual's table. Manes stated that he also purchased from this same individual a barrel extender tube for the TEC-9 and a 30 round magazine clip. These purchases were conducted with Manes' USBank debit card of which he has had for approximately 1 1/2 years.
6. Manes stated that Brian Distal drove his car to the gun show that the three of them attended. Manes states that he has known Distal for approximately 5 years. Manes was asked if he purchased any ammunition from the gun show and he stated that he did not, but Brian Distal did from Gert Brothers sports store at Wadsworth and Bowles.
7. Manes was asked if there was anything else about the gun show purchase of the TEC-9 that he remembers. Manes stated that the plastic case that the TEC-9 came in had a different serial number than the actual firearm did. Manes states that this black plastic gun case with Intratec on it had a white/blue sticker label with the wrong serial number on it. Also on the plastic gun case was a blue sticker approximately one quarter inch round, the size of a paper punch, with no writing on it. Manes stated that on the receipt provided by Eagle Enterprise, the correct serial number pertaining to the TEC-9, serial number D076305 was written.
8. Manes stated that the last time he had spoken with Brian Distal was a couple of nights after the Columbine High School incident.
9. Manes was asked for additional information about the Tanner Gun Show and provided that the admission fee to enter was $5.00. This was the first gun show he had attended and Brian Distal who collects guns and hunts, asked him if he wanted to go along with him and his brother. Manes agrees to go. Manes stated that the price of firearms at gun shows is cheaper than retail stores. Manes stated that at the table where he bought the TEC-9, the individual had displayed 3 or 4 TEC-9's, 2 MAC-11's and approximately 5 or 6 handguns.
10. Manes stated that the dealer did not make much eye contact with him at the time of the purchase and further described him as having a wrinkled face, 5'8" to 5'9" tall and heavy set. This individual was wearing a gold ring on his right hand and wearing a white button up type shirt. Manes indicated that the time of purchase was approximately 2:00 p.m. Manes added that the TEC-9 also had a 12 round magazine clip in the box.
11. Manes stated that after the gun show, they dropped Distal's brother off at his house near Colfax Avenue and Sheridan. Manes stated that they were thinking about going shooting and decided not to.

12. Manes remembered that he spent over $300.00 for the TEC-9, $60.00 for the barrel extender and $45.00 for the 30 round magazine.
13. Manes initially indicated that they had gone shooting the next day but after reviewing the bank statement date realized that the date he attended the gun show must have been Sunday, August 2, 1998 and therefore decided that they had not in fact gone shooting the next day. Manes stated that they must have gone shooting that same day.
14. Manes stated that they went shooting around Rampart and indicates that it is down Foxton Road to 67, to Platte River Road and eventually to Sugar Creek Road. Manes stated that they went up a small valley and shot the TEC-9 and Brian Distal, he believes, shot his Desert Eagle. Manes stated that he shot all of his ammunition except for ten rounds and Brian shot all of his ammunition.
15. Manes was asked what types of firearms dies he have and he stated that he has a Ruger, .45 caliber pistol and a Ruger, mini-30.
16. Manes was asked who his shooting partners are and he stated that Phil Duran, Brian Distel, Greg Marcilliot are his shooting partners. Manes stated that his girlfriend, Jessie Miklich was present when they went shooting of three occasions.
17. Manes stated that he has gone shooting 3 times with Eric Harris and 2 times of those three times, Dylan Klebold were present.
18. Manes produced a receipt for January 23, 1999. Manes stated that this receipt was for the purchase of the Ruger, .45 caliber pistol that he bought at the Tanner Gun Show on this date. Manes states that Phil Duran, Phil's dad are at the gun show. Manes believes Phil's brother is also present but is not sure. Duran had told Manes earlier that two guys from his work might be showing up at the gun show and are interested in his TEC-9. Eric Harris and Dylan Klebold show up at the gun show and are introduced to Manes. Duran states to Manes that Eric Harris is interested in buying the TEC-9. While walking around the gun show, Harris and Klebold ask Manes about the TEC-9, so Manes shows Harris and Klebold the TEC-9's he sees around the gun show and points out the one he has and its accessories. Harris and Klebold ask Manes how much he wants for the TEC-9 and Manes tells them $500.00. Harris and Klebold agree. Manes states that Harris had to go to work and so does Duran so it is agreed that Duran will give Klebold Manes' cellular telephone number, and Klebold will call Manes later that evening.
19. Manes stated that prior to everyone leaving, Harris and Klebold purchased ammunition at the table next to where Manes had purchased his Ruger, .45 caliber pistol. Manes states that he was informed by Klebold and Harris that they got a good price for ammunition and Manes also buys some ammunition from this table. Manes stated that he was requested from the person at the table to show identification and states that he doesn't know if Harris or Klebold were asked for identification.

REPORT NUMBER:

20. After leaving the guns show, Manes is dropped off at his residence located at 6002 W. Alder Avenue, Littleton, Colorado. Manes stated that Duran had to be at work at 5:00 p.m. Manes stated that Harris and Klebold were both cooks at Blackjack Pizza located at S. Pierce and Ottawa and that Klebold, Harris and Duran all worked together.
21. Manes states that at approximately 6:00 to 6:30 p.m. he is called by Klebold on his cellular phone. Klebold asks if they are going to go ahead with the sale and Manes says yes and gives directions to his residence. Manes states that Klebold comes over, rings the bell and Manes lets him in and they go to Manes' bedroom. Klebold views the TEC-9 and Manes states that he shows Klebold how to operate the firearm, work the safety and clean it. Manes states that there was no manual with the TEC-9. Manes asks Klebold if he wants it and Klebold states that he does. Manes stated that since he wanted the firearm now, Klebold would have to pay $300.00 down now and the balance of $200.00 in two weeks. Klebold agrees to this and pays Manes the $300.00. Manes states that no receipt was given at this time but had told Klebold that he would give him a receipt when the TEC-9 was paid in full. Manes stated that Brian Distal and Greg Marcilliot show up at his house with some beer and he invites them into his bedroom. Manes introduces Distal and Marcilliot to Klebold and all four have a beer together. After the beer Klebold decides to leave. Manes walks him to the door and does not see what Klebold is driving. Manes states that he tells Distal and Marcilliot that he has sold the TEC-9 to Klebold for $500.00 and that $200.00 is still owed. Prior to leaving, Klebold tells Manes that he would call him on Manes' cellular phone when he had the $200.00.
22. Manes states that two weeks later, he and Duran went shooting at Rampart with Harris and Klebold. Manes states that this is the first time they go shooting with Harris and Klebold. Harris and Klebold had the TEC-9 and possibly the Hi-Point, 9mm rifle. Manes states that he forgot to ask for the $200.00 owed by Klebold and later that evening he calls Duran and asks him if he can get the $200.00 from Harris and Klebold. Manes states that a couple of days later, Duran gives him the $200.00 he is owed from Klebold and Harris at Duran's house.
23. Manes states that the second time he goes shooting, Harris comes up but Klebold has to work. Manes states that Harris has the TEC-9 he sold them and the Hi-Point, 9mm rifle. Manes stated that this second time shooting was one week after the first time they went shooting together with Klebold and Harris. Manes further stated that Phil Applegate was present, Brian Distal was present and had brought along two AR-15 rifles. Duran was present but did not have any firearms and also present was Manes' girlfriend Jessie. Manes stated that they were shooting at orange dots which they had bought at the Giddy-up Mart on Highway 67. Manes stated that how they organized to go shooting was that everyone would meet at Manes' house and they would drive up to Rampart. Some of the shooters would meet on location at Rampart. Manes further stated that they would coordinate to go shooting over the phone and that this process was a common one since they went shooting almost every weekend.
- Manes states that the third time they went shooting with Harris and Klebold was when the video tape was made. Manes stated that on March 6, 1999, Duran and Manes decided to go shooting up at Rampart. Manes brought his Ruger, .45 caliber pistol and Ruger, mini 30 rifle. Manes stated that Duran did not own any firearms but his dad did, so he did not have any firearms with him. Manes states that they were joined later by Eric Harris and Dylan Klebold and had brought along the TEC-9. Sometime during the target shooting, Harris and Klebold brought out two sawed-off shotguns. Manes described the shotguns as having the barrels and stocks cut off and that one of the shotguns was a pump action and the other a double-barrel. Manes stated that he shot the pump shotgun and told Harris and Klebold that they had better hide the shotguns in case anybody comes by. Manes stated that the video equipment used belonged to Columbine High School and was brought up by Harris and Klebold. Manes further stated that Duran was doing the filming and so did he. Manes states that the Hi-Point rifle was brought up on this day and he asked Harris where he had obtained it. Harris stated that he got it from his cousin. Manes asked Harris and Klebold where they got the shotguns and they replied, "We got 'em". Manes states that he presumed they had stolen them. Manes concluded that they used trees and bowling pins for targets on this shooting day.

25. Manes recalls that Klebold or Harris asks if Brian Distal wants to sell his SKS rifle. Duran and Manes ask Distal if he is interested in selling the SKS rifle to Harris and Klebold and Distal states he does not know if he wants to sell it.

Manes asked if he has any information regarding any ammunition purchased by Klebold and Harris. Manes states, "The night before the 'Columbine Massacre', Thursday, before the 20th of April," Harris called Manes' house from his house and asked Manes to purchase some ammunition for his 9mm. Manes stated that he would and would call him back that evening. Manes forgets about the ammunition purchase and Harris calls back on Monday, April 19th. Manes forgets again and at approximately 8:00 p.m. he is called by Harris. Manes feels bad he has not purchased it for him and decides to go immediately to purchase the 9mm ammunition. Manes states that Harris wanted 2 boxes of 9mm ammunition. Manes goes to K-Mart near his house and purchases 2 boxes of 9mm ammunition for Harris and 1 box of .45 caliber ammunition for himself. Manes states that he pays with his debit card and on the way home he calls Harris to meet him at Manes' house to pickup the ammunition. Manes states that he waited in the driveway of his residence until Harris shows up. Harris pays Manes $25.00 for the 2 boxes of ammunition and they talk. Harris talks about the Marines and they discuss this for awhile. Manes asks Harris if he was going shooting tonight and Harris says maybe tomorrow.

27. Manes was asked how old does he think you have to be to buy ammunition? Manes stated that he thought you had to be 21 years old. Manes was asked why would Klebold or Harris contact him to buy ammunition. Manes replied that you had to be 21 years old to buy ammunition. Manes was informed that you had to be 18. Manes stated that he believed that Klebold and Harris were 18 years old and seniors in high school. Manes was informed that Duran had told him that Klebold and Harris were both 17 years old. Manes stated that after the Columbine High School shooting, was when Duran told him that Klebold and Harris were 17. After some discussion, Manes admitted that he assumed that Harris and Klebold were both 17 years old based on them not being able to purchase firearms and ammunition.

Manes was shown the receipt from a K-Mart store located in Littleton, Colorado which reflected the sale of ammunition on 4/19/1999. Manes admitted that the purchase of ammunition reflected on the receipt shown to him was his purchase of the 9mm and .45 caliber ammunition that he bought for Harris and himself.

Report of Interview

SYNOPSIS:

Report of interview with Ron Hartmann and Jim Washington, at the Federal Bureau of Investigation office located in Colorado Springs, Colorado, on April 30, 1999.

NARRATIVE:

- On April 30, 1999, Mr. Ron Hartmann and Mr. Jim Washington were interviewed at the FBI office in Colorado Springs.
- Hartman and Washington state that Stevens, model 311D, 12 gauge, double-barrel shotgun by Savage, serial number A077513 was sold to an 18 year old female on November 22, 1998. This 18 year old female had just turned 18 a few weeks prior and her age was confirmed by her Colorado driver's license. According to FBI Special Agent Keith Howland, Hartmann and Washington were 100% sure the female was Robyn Anderson and the young man who accompanied her, they are 80% sure it was Dylan Klebold.
- The sale of the shotgun was conducted by Anderson who paid for the firearm in cash which she produced. No receipt was given and when the shotgun was handed to Anderson, Klebold took the firearm himself.
- An FBI 302, Report of Interview is attached with a full narrative of the events surrounding this firearm transaction.

On 04/30/1999, James Royce Washington (PROTECT IDENTITY), also known as Jim Washington, 6020 Snowbird Drive, Colorado Springs, Colorado 80918, a white male born 12/21/1947, Social Security Account Number 237-70-9180, voluntarily appeared at the Colorado Springs Resident Agency. Washington was accompanied by Ron F. Hartmann, also of Colorado Springs. Also present during a portion of this interview was Supervisory Senior Resident Agent Gregory B. Groves. After being advised of the nature of this interview and the identity of the interviewing agent, Washington provided the following information:

Washington is employed as a Senior Investigative and Security Specialist with the Defense Security Service (DSS), 1935 Jamboree, Suite 170, Colorado Springs. Washington has been with the DSS for 17 years and has a total of 26 years of service with the United States Government.

Washington advised that he is an avid gun collector and often goes to gun shows to sell, trade or purchase guns and supplies. Sometimes he will take his daughter along with him to shows.

In late October 1997, Washington met Ron Hartmann because they lived near one another and Hartmann had brought Washington his guns from a show in Pueblo, Colorado, which had to be canceled due to the blizzard in Colorado at that time. Since both of them shared an interest in gun collecting and frequented the same shows, they agreed to start going to shows together and sharing the expenses of obtaining a booth or table. In addition, one man could watch the table and their inventory, while the other one walked around the show to see what was available.

On the weekend of 11/21-22/1998, Washington and Hartmann went to the Tanner Gun Show at the Denver Merchandise Mart in Commerce City, Colorado and set up two tables together. On Sunday 11/22/1999, Washington did not have his daughter with him; it was just he and Hartmann at their tables.

On Sunday afternoon (11/22/1999), Washington was sitting in a chair facing to his right, looking at Hartmann. Washington guessed that it was sometime after lunch. Hartmann was talking to someone across the table from him when a young female and a young male approached their tables and began talking to Hartmann. Washington stated that Hartmann was standing and he recalled Hartmann asked the female for her license and saw the girl give it to him. Washington could not see the male clearly due to the vertical gun rack on the tables, which blocked his view of the male. He saw the female clearly. He stated that he even looked up when he heard Ron say something like "You don't look 18".

Washington advised that since the shootings at Columbine High School in Littleton, Colorado, he now believes this female to be Robyn Anderson. He described her as having shorter hair than she has now, as determined by her photographs on the television and in the newspapers. Anderson was wearing jeans and a light colored top. She had a shoulder bag, possibly of denim material, which had a flap but no snaps.

Washington stated that after the shotgun was sold, Ron Hartmann handed the gun to Anderson, but the male took it. He heard Hartmann say something to the effect of "it's nice of you to carry it" to the male. As the couple walked away, Hartmann turned to Washington and said "That girl just turned 18." Washington stated that he had no recollection of the male because his view was blocked by the gun rack and there were several people around the table at this time, some of whom were asking Washington questions. Neither Washington nor Hartmann could identify anyone around their tables who could provide any additional assistance.

Following the initial news reports about the shootings and the weapons involved, Washington did not think anything about this particular show and their sales of guns at the Tanner Gun Show. He wondered who had sold the weapons which were used in the shootings. After Robyn Anderson was identified and her picture appeared on the news, Washington immediately recognized her as the female who had purchased the shotgun from Hartmann. He telephonically contacted Hartmann and told him of this fact, but Hartmann did not believe Washington at first, because the news reports did not mention that Anderson had purchased the shotgun.

Washington stated that he wished to cooperate fully with this investigation. Washington does have concerns for his personal safety due to the numerous leaks of information to the media about the progress of the investigation. He feels that Hartmann legally sold a shotgun to an 18 year old individual and did nothing illegal and cannot be blamed for what happened at Columbine High School. Washington fears that if his identity got out, people would attack him or his family and vandalize his home out of vengeance for what happened. He does not believe people would act rationally toward either him or Hartmann if their identities were divulged.

Washington could provide no additional information at this time and the interview was terminated at this point.

On 04/30/1999, Ronald Frank Hartmann (PROTECT IDENTITY), also known as Ron Hartmann, 3835 Blazingwood Way, Colorado Springs, Colorado 80918, a white male born 08/08/1939, Social Security Account Number 150-30-9559, voluntarily appeared at the Colorado Springs Resident Agency. Hartmann was accompanied by James R. Washington, also of Colorado Springs. Also present during a portion of this interview was Supervisory Senior Resident Agent Gregory B. Groves. After being advised of the nature of this interview and the identity of the interviewing agent, Hartmann provided the following information:

Hartmann served 20 years in the Armed Forces, with his time split between the United States Navy (1957 - 1961) and the United States Air Force (USAF) (1961 - 1977). Upon retirement from the USAF, he became a civilian employee of the United States Government, first at Fort Carson in Colorado Springs and then with the Defense Logistics Agency in Ogden, Utah. Due to downsizing on the part of the United States Government, when the program he was assigned to in Utah was shut down, he retired from the Government and is currently unemployed.

Hartmann advised that he is an avid gun collector and has been for most of his adult life. Hartmann enjoys going to gun shows because it is usually a good gathering place for serious collectors and he has gotten to know many individuals over the years. Sometimes he goes to these shows to look around and see if there is anything he wishes to buy or trade for and sometimes he goes and sets up a table or booth and sells some of his guns and associated supplies; such as knives and reloading supplies.

Hartmann described the shows in the Fall and Spring as being the best ones to go to in order to buy, sell or trade items. Two to four times per year, Hartmann will set up a booth or table and sell items. In addition to this, he estimated that he attends about six to seven shows a year when he is not selling. Mostly he sets up a table or booth at the Sertoma Gun Show in Colorado Springs and a few shows, including the Tanner Gun Shows at the Merchandise Mart, in the Denver area.

In the Fall of 1997, around the time of the blizzard, both Hartmann and Jim Washington, had set up individual tables at a gun show in Pueblo, Colorado. Hartmann was staying in Pueblo and Washington had come down and set up his table on Friday and had returned to Colorado Springs. Due to the blizzard, Washington could not return to Pueblo and the show was canceled due to the conditions. Many dealers had displays set up but could not come and retrieve their guns for some time. Hartmann told the coordinator of the show that he would take Washington's guns back to Colorado Springs with him and return them to Washington, as long as someone else inventoried them before Hartmann left. This was done and Hartmann met Washington for the first time when he returned Washington's guns to him. Due to their mutual interests in guns and in going to these gun shows, they decided to begin going to the shows together, rather than separately.

During the weekend of 11/21-22/1998, Hartmann and Washington went to the Tanner Gun Show at the Denver Merchandise Mart in Commerce City, Colorado. They set up two tables side-by-side at this show. At each end of the tables, there was a horizontal gun rack containing a few quality guns with a sign saying "Do Not Touch", which either Washington or Hartmann would pick up and display to a potential buyer. At the very center of the table, straddling the two, was a vertical rack containing older guns, which Hartmann called "beaters", which the public could handle if they chose to do so. Hartmann advised that at this show, they had approximately 12 to 15 guns for sale in addition to knives, scopes and reloading supplies and equipment.

Hartmann advised that on Saturday (11/21/1998), there were a lot of people at their tables, but they did not sell much inventory. On Sunday (11/22/1998), there were a lot of people milling around; more than normally observed on a Sunday according to Hartmann.

Hartmann advised that if you were standing in front of their tables looking at them, Washington was on the right side, sitting on a chair facing to his right and Hartmann was standing on the left side.

Hartmann believes it was Sunday afternoon, sometime after lunch, when a young female came up to their tables accompanied by a young male. The female stood facing Hartmann and the male stood with one arm resting on the vertical gun rack in the center of the tables. The female said to Hartmann, "I would like to buy that shotgun." Hartmann said "This one here, the double barrel?" She replied "Yes." He asked "How old are you?" and she replied "18". He stated that she was very young looking and so he asked her for some identification "Can I see your driver's license?" Without any hesitation, she reached into her wallet produced a Colorado Drivers License for Hartmann to see. Upon inspection, Hartmann determined that she was in fact 18 years old, just having passed her birthday a few weeks before the show.

174A-DN-57419

Hartmann stated that the price tag on the shotgun said $245.00 and he told her the price. The female pulled out a wallet from her bag and counted out the money. Hartmann stated that as best as he could recall it was mostly $20 bills and there were no large bills in the total. She handed him the cash and he counted it out. Once he was satisfied that she had paid the correct amount, Hartmann reached for the shotgun and removed it from the rack and handed it to her. At this point, the male accompanying her, reached over and took the shotgun from Hartmann's hands. Hartmann said he made a statement to the effect of "Are you going to be a gentleman and carry it for her?" and the male replied "Yes."

Hartmann described both the male and female as being nice looking kids and had no reason to question them. He described the male as being about 5'11" tall, since he is 5'10", and the female as being about 5'6" or so. The male was taller than the female. The male was wearing a dark, short-sleeve shirt. Hartmann could not recall what the female was wearing at the time. He just recalled that both were clean-cut. Hartmann went on to say that the female had blond hair, not real long and she a round face and was of medium build; not skinny, not fat. He also described the female as being timid in her demeanor. It was Hartmann's impression that she was nervous because she did not ask any questions about the gun. Hartmann put this down to the fact that she had never purchased a gun before.

After their transaction was completed, the couple left Hartmann's tables and walked away. Hartmann turned towards Washington and remarked "That girl just turned 18."

Hartmann advised that he did not initially think about this incident following the tragedy at Columbine High School until Washington called him on the telephone to remind him of the girl. After the media coverage of the shooting and his discussions with Washington, Hartmann now believes that the female who purchased the shotgun from him at the 11/22/1998 Tanner Gun Show was Robyn Anderson. He is 100% sure of this. He is also 80% sure that her male companion was Dylan Klebold. Hartmann also advised that he has an image in his mind that while he was conducting the transaction with Anderson and Klebold, across the aisle from his tables was a young male holding a pump shotgun, who appeared to be waiting for them. Hartmann could not identify this male.

Hartman stated that the shotgun Anderson purchased from him was a Stevens Model 311D, 12-gauge double barreled shotgun, serial number A077513, with a 28" barrel and the choke was full and modified. Hartmann also advised that the shotgun was mechanically in good condition, had a walnut stock, the finish was good and that the bluing on the barrel was very streaky, as if the original bluing had worn off and someone had tried to re-blue it. Hartmann was able to determine this from some old records he keeps for insurance purposes.

Hartmann stated that there was no paperwork produced for this sale and no receipt was given or asked for. Hartmann advised that he had personally purchased this gun sometime before this show, but he could not determine exactly when and where he had done so.

Hartmann stated that he keeps a record of the manufacturer, the model numbers and the serial numbers of all of the guns he has for insurance purposes and is constantly updating these records as he buys and sells guns. When he updates his records, he discards the old records.

Hartmann advised that once they left his stand, he did not observe them again. He and Washington did gun shows the following weekend in Colorado Springs (Sertoma); in about February 1999 in Colorado Springs and the Tanner Gun Show at the Denver Merchandise Mart in March 1999. At none of these subsequent gun shows did Hartmann observe either Anderson or Klebold.

Hartmann stated that while he is reluctant to be providing this information, he felt an obligation to do so. He wanted it clearly understood that he was coming forward as soon as practical after he became aware of the situation that the shotgun which he sold in November 1998, was sold to Robyn Anderson accompanied by Dylan Klebold. He expressed concerns for his personal safety due to all of the leaks of information being made to the media. Hartmann stated that he made a legal sale of the shotgun to an individual, 18 years of age or older, and had broken no laws. Hartmann is afraid that if his identity is somehow released to the media, he will become a target for vengeance and will be viewed as responsible for the tragedy at Columbine High School.

Hartmann turned over to the interviewer a hand-drawn diagram which he had used while describing the layout of his booth and the positions of all parties at the time of the sale of the shotgun. In addition, he advised that the table behind theirs was occupied by the Golden Gun Club and when you faced outward, to their left were three tables full of ammunition being sold by some people from Pocatello, Idaho.

Hartmann had no additional information and at that point the interview was terminated. He did advise that if he recalled any additional information, he would contact that the interviewing agent.

purchase firearms was because he was 21 years old. Duran also stated that nobody has asked him to purchase guns for them besides Harris and Klebold.

5. Duran stated that he told Harris and Klebold that he had a friend who may want to sell his TEC-9 and gave Mark Manes' home phone number. Duran stated that he told Manes that Harris and Klebold would be calling him to purchase the TEC-9. Duran stated that the time period of this conversation and the giving out of Manes' home telephone number had occurred around the end of February or the beginning of March. Duran further stated that approximately 1 to 2 weeks later, Harris and Klebold gave him $125.00 to give to Manes for the balance of money owed on the TEC-9. Duran states that he gave the money to Manes who thanked him.
6. Duran stated that he has known Mark Manes for approximately 7 years. They attended Columbine High School and Colorado's Finest Alternative High School together. Duran stated that the last time he spoke with Manes was on Saturday, May 8th, 1999. Duran stated that they did not talk about the shooting, just about how each was doing.
7. Duran stated that Manes purchased the TEC-9 approximately 6 months to 1 year ago at the gun show. Duran states that it was in the summer or fall of 1998. Duran stated that he attended a gun show with Manes in December 1998 or January or February 1999. Duran recalls that his father was also present. Duran stated that he had told Harris and Klebold that he and Manes would be going to the gun show and Harris and Klebold stated that they would meet there. Duran states that Harris and Klebold walked around the gun show with Manes and himself and Manes pointed out the TEC-9's that were displayed at the various tables and explained to Harris and Klebold what his TEC-9 was like. Duran stated that Manes bought his .45 caliber handgun at this gun show and believes that Harris or bought a knife from a dealer that sold knives and swords. Duran stated that it looked like Harris and Klebold had bought other items from the bag they carried but he is not sure. Duran stated that Manes bought a 20 to 30 round ammunition clip for the TEC-9 at this gun show. Duran stated that Manes filled out the appropriate paperwork for the purchase of the .45 handgun and they had to wait approximately 1 1/4 hours for the transaction to be completed.
8. Duran was asked about target shooting up at Rampart Range and stated that he had been shooting 3 times at Rampart with Harris and Klebold. Duran stated that the first time they went shooting was around the end of February. Harris and Klebold brought up the HiPoint rifle and the TEC-9. Duran stated that on the 2nd target shooting day occurred around the beginning of March, Harris and Klebold brought up the same two weapons, HiPoint rifle and TEC-9. Duran stated that all the shooters would meet at Manes' house and carpool up to the target shooting sight. Duran states that Harris and Klebold stated on the evening before at Blackjack Pizza or on the morning that they were going to go shoot at Rampart for the third time, that they had a surprise to show when they arrived at Rampart. Duran recalls the date to be around the middle of March. Duran stated that the surprise turned out to be two sawed off shotguns which Harris and Klebold produced from a black duffle bag. One was a pump action shotgun and the other a double barrel break-open shotgun. Both shotguns had the barrels and the stocks cut down. Duran stated that Harris predominantly shot the pump shotgun and Klebold shot the double barrel shotgun. Both Harris and Klebold had cuts on the webbing of their hands from the recoil of the shotguns. Duran stated that Klebold had the worst cut since it was constantly bleeding. Duran stated that Harris and Klebold both shot the TEC-9 and Harris mostly shot the HiPoint rifle. Duran stated that Harris stated that the HiPoint belonged to his uncle or cousin. Duran said he asked Harris and Klebold where they got the shotguns and they would not tell him. Duran assumed they got them from his father or were possible stolen. Duran further stated that he believes he drove Harris and Klebold up in his car to Rampart. He further states that he believes that he transported Harris and Klebold's firearms in his car at least once. Duran further stated that they always went shooting on Saturday's at the Rampart location. Also brought up to the Rampart location was the TEC-9 and the HiPoint rifle. According to Duran, the individuals that were present on all three shooting events were Harris, Klebold, Jessica (Manes' girlfriend) and himself. Duran stated that he never brought up any firearms because he did not own any.

9. Duran states that on the third time they went shooting, Harris and Klebold brought up a video camera and filmed them shooting at the Rampart location. Duran stated that he did most of the filming but that Manes did some filming too. Duran stated that Manes asked for a copy of the video tape from Harris and Klebold and a copy was provided to Duran who watched it and gave it to Manes. Duran stated that on one occasion when Harris was shooting a 12 gauge slug into a tree he stated, "I wonder what that would do to a person". Duran stated that they would shoot at orange target stickers that they acquired at the Giddyup & Go store that is located approximately 5 miles prior to the entrance to Rampart. Duran stated that the directions to the store were southbound on Highway 85 to the Sedalia turn off sign. Take a right and the road would take you to the store and further up the road would be Rampart entrance. Duran stated that Harris and Klebold would bring bowling pins from their bowling class to use as targets.
10. Duran was asked when the was the last time he saw Harris or Klebold and he stated that he saw Klebold picking up his paycheck at Blackjack Pizza approximately April 9, -1999 or sooner.
11. Duran stated that he heard from his girlfriend Cristina Applegate, that Mark Manes had come over to their house either the day of or the day after the Columbine shooting event and was visibly distraught over the incident. This was due to Manes' involvement with Harris and Klebold and the TEC-9 sale. Duran further stated that he knew that Manes had purchased 9mm ammunition for Harris and Klebold the day before the Columbine shooting.
12. Duran stated that Chris Morris is a close friend of Harris and Klebold and they always "hung out" together.
13. Duran was asked if he had any computers and he replied that there are two computers at his house but they belong to his roommates Brian and Angel Pytlinski. Duran stated that he has a new laptop but obtained it approximately one month ago. Duran gave his permission for any computer searches. Duran stated that Angel Pytlinski also worked at Blackjack Pizza as a driver and Brian Pytlinski works for either BPI or EPS at Colorado computer company.
14. Duran concluded that he had overheard one day while at work at Blackjack Pizza, Harris stating that Klebold or Harris had "made up" with Brooks.

Sergeant West,

This is to inform you of the status of the Columbine Shooting investigation by the Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco & Firearms in relation to the firearm portion of the investigation.

To date, a search of the Bureau of A.T.F. Federal Firearms Licensee's database is being conducted and compared to the Tanner Gun Show list for the dates that the three (3) long guns were purchased by Anderson for Harris and Klebold. Once this list has been generated, the current or past FFL's names that match the Tanner Gun Show list will be contacted via interview by inspectors of our agency. These inspectors have been given a list of questions to ask these present or past FFL's and requested to review their bound books, if applicable. This search of information is to determine if Anderson is subject to a federal felony if an ATF Form 4473 (yellow form) was completed or if an FFL is subject to a federal felony if the firearm transactions were conducted "off paper". There is also the possibility that the three (3) transactions were conducted by a private party's and if this is the case, no one is subject to any criminal penalties. I will keep you informed as this portion of the investigation continues.

If you have any questions please call me at (303) 844-3421.

In the Fall of 1997, around the time of the blizzard, both Hartmann and Jim Washington, had set up individual tables at a gun show in Pueblo, Colorado. Hartmann was staying in Pueblo and Washington had come down and set up his table on Friday and had returned to Colorado Springs. Due to the blizzard, Washington could not return to Pueblo and the show was canceled due to the conditions. Many dealers had displays set up but could not come and retrieve their guns for some time. Hartmann told the coordinator of the show that he would take Washington's guns back to Colorado Springs with him and return them to Washington, as long as someone else inventoried them before Hartmann left. This was done and Hartmann met Washington for the first time when he returned Washington's guns to him. Due to their mutual interests in guns and in going to these gun shows, they decided to begin going to the shows together, rather than separately.

During the weekend of 11/21-22/1998, Hartmann and Washington went to the Tanner Gun Show at the Denver Merchandise Mart in Commerce City, Colorado. They set up two tables side-by-side at this show. At each end of the tables, there was a horizontal gun rack containing a few quality guns with a sign saying "Do Not Touch", which either Washington or Hartmann would pick up and display to a potential buyer. At the very center of the table, straddling the two, was a vertical rack containing older guns, which Hartmann called "beaters", which the public could handle if they chose to do so. Hartmann advised that at this show, they had approximately 12 to 15 guns for sale in addition to knives, scopes and reloading supplies and equipment.

Hartmann advised that on Saturday (11/21/1998), there were a lot of people at their tables, but they did not sell much inventory. On Sunday (11/22/1998), there were a lot of people milling around; more than normally observed on a Sunday according to Hartmann.

Hartmann advised that if you were standing in front of their tables looking at them, Washington was on the right side, sitting on a chair facing to his right and Hartmann was standing on the left side.

Hartmann believes it was Sunday afternoon, sometime after lunch, when a young female came up to their tables accompanied by a young male. The female stood facing Hartmann and the male stood with one arm resting on the vertical gun rack in the center of the tables. The female said to Hartmann, "I would like to buy that shotgun." Hartmann said "This one here, the double barrel?" She replied "Yes." He asked "How old are you?" and she replied "18". He stated that she was very young looking and so he asked her for some identification "Can I see your driver's license?" Without any hesitation, she reached into her wallet produced a Colorado Drivers License for Hartmann to see. Upon inspection, Hartmann determined that she was in fact 18 years old, just having passed her birthday a few weeks before the show.

Hartmann stated that the price tag on the shotgun said $245.00 and he told her the price. The female pulled out a wallet from her bag and counted out the money. Hartmann stated that as best as he could recall it was mostly $20 bills and there were no large bills in the total. She handed him the cash and he counted it out. Once he was satisfied that she had paid the correct amount, Hartmann reached for the shotgun and removed it from the rack and handed it to her. At this point, the male accompanying her, reached over and took the shotgun from Hartmann's hands. Hartmann said he made a statement to the effect of "Are you going to be a gentleman and carry it for her?" and the male replied "Yes."

Hartmann described both the male and female as being nice looking kids and had no reason to question them. He described the male as being about 5'11" tall, since he is 5'10", and the female as being about 5'6" or so. The male was taller than the female. The male was wearing a dark, short-sleeve shirt. Hartmann could not recall what the female was wearing at the time. He just recalled that both were clean-cut. Hartmann went on to say that the female had blond hair, not real long and she a round face and was of medium build; not skinny, not fat. He also described the female as being timid in her demeanor. It was Hartmann's impression that she was nervous because she did not ask any questions about the gun. Hartmann put this down to the fact that she had never purchased a gun before.

After their transaction was completed, the couple left Hartmann's tables and walked away. Hartmann turned towards Washington and remarked "That girl just turned 18."

Hartmann advised that he did not initially think about this incident following the tragedy at Columbine High School until Washington called him on the telephone to remind him of the girl. After the media coverage of the shooting and his discussions with Washington, Hartmann now believes that the female who purchased the shotgun from him at the 11/22/1998 Tanner Gun Show was Robyn Anderson. He is 100% sure of this. He is also 80% sure that her male companion was Dylan Klebold. Hartmann also advised that he has an image in his mind that while he was conducting the transaction with Anderson and Klebold, across the aisle from his tables was a young male holding a pump shotgun, who appeared to be waiting for them. Hartmann could not identify this male.

Hartman stated that the shotgun Anderson purchased from him was a Stevens Model 311D, 12-gauge double barreled shotgun, serial number A077513, with a 28" barrel and the choke was full and modified. Hartmann also advised that the shotgun was mechanically in good condition, had a walnut stock, the finish was good and that the bluing on the barrel was very streaky, as if the original bluing had worn off and someone had tried to re-blue it. Hartmann was able to determine this from some old records he keeps for insurance purposes.

Hartmann stated that there was no paperwork produced for this sale and no receipt was given or asked for. Hartmann advised that he had personally purchased this gun sometime before this show, but he could not determine exactly when and where he had done so.

Hartmann stated that he keeps a record of the manufacturer, the model numbers and the serial numbers of all of the guns he has for insurance purposes and is constantly updating these records as he buys and sells guns. When he updates his records, he discards the old records.

Hartmann advised that once they left his stand, he did not observe them again. He and Washington did gun shows the following weekend in Colorado Springs (Sertoma); in about February 1999 in Colorado Springs and the Tanner Gun Show at the Denver Merchandise Mart in March 1999. At none of these subsequent gun shows did Hartmann observe either Anderson or Klebold.

Hartmann stated that while he is reluctant to be providing this information, he felt an obligation to do so. He wanted it clearly understood that he was coming forward as soon as practical after he became aware of the situation that the shotgun which he sold in November 1998, was sold to Robyn Anderson accompanied by Dylan Klebold. He expressed concerns for his personal safety due to all of the leaks of information being made to the media. Hartmann stated that he made a legal sale of the shotgun to an individual, 18 years of age or older, and had broken no laws. Hartmann is afraid that if his identity is somehow released to the media, he will become a target for vengeance and will be viewed as responsible for the tragedy at Columbine High School.

Hartmann turned over to the interviewer a hand-drawn diagram which he had used while describing the layout of his booth and the positions of all parties at the time of the sale of the shotgun. In addition, he advised that the table behind theirs was occupied by the Golden Gun Club and when you faced outward, to their left were three tables full of ammunition being sold by some people from Pocatello, Idaho.

Hartmann had no additional information and at that point the interview was terminated. He did advise that if he recalled any additional information, he would contact that the interviewing agent.

On 04/30/1999, James Royce Washington (PROTECT IDENTITY), also known as Jim Washington, 6020 Snowbird Drive, Colorado Springs, Colorado 80918, a white male born 12/21/1947, Social Security Account Number 237-70-9180, voluntarily appeared at the Colorado Springs Resident Agency. Washington was accompanied by Ron F. Hartmann, also of Colorado Springs. Also present during a portion of this interview was Supervisory Senior Resident Agent Gregory B. Groves. After being advised of the nature of this interview and the identity of the interviewing agent, Washington provided the following information:

Washington is employed as a Senior Investigative and Security Specialist with the Defense Security Service (DSS), 1935 Jamboree, Suite 170, Colorado Springs. Washington has been with the DSS for 17 years and has a total of 26 years of service with the United States Government.

Washington advised that he is an avid gun collector and often goes to gun shows to sell, trade or purchase guns and supplies. Sometimes he will take his daughter along with him to shows.

In late October 1997, Washington met Ron Hartmann because they lived near one another and Hartmann had brought Washington his guns from a show in Pueblo, Colorado, which had to be canceled due to the blizzard in Colorado at that time. Since both of them shared an interest in gun collecting and frequented the same shows, they agreed to start going to shows together and sharing the expenses of obtaining a booth or table. In addition, one man could watch the table and their inventory, while the other one walked around the show to see what was available.

On the weekend of 11/21-22/1998, Washington and Hartmann went to the Tanner Gun Show at the Denver Merchandise Mart in Commerce City, Colorado and set up two tables together. On Sunday 11/22/1999, Washington did not have his daughter with him; it was just he and Hartmann at their tables.

On Sunday afternoon (11/22/1999), Washington was sitting in a chair facing to his right, looking at Hartmann. Washington guessed that it was sometime after lunch. Hartmann was talking to someone across the table from him when a young female and a young male approached their tables and began talking to Hartmann. Washington stated that Hartmann was standing and he recalled Hartmann asked the female for her license and saw the girl give it to him. Washington could not see the male clearly due to the vertical gun rack on the tables, which blocked his view of the male. He saw the female clearly. He stated that he even looked up when he heard Ron say something like "You don't look 18".

Washington advised that since the shootings at Columbine High School in Littleton, Colorado, he now believes this female to be Robyn Anderson. He described her as having shorter hair than she has now, as determined by her photographs on the television and in the newspapers. Anderson was wearing jeans and a light colored top. She had a shoulder bag, possibly of denim material, which had a flap but no snaps.

Washington stated that after the shotgun was sold, Ron Hartmann handed the gun to Anderson, but the male took it. He heard Hartmann say something to the effect of "it's nice of you to carry it" to the male. As the couple walked away, Hartmann turned to Washington and said "That girl just turned 18." Washington stated that he had no recollection of the male because his view was blocked by the gun rack and there were several people around the table at this time, some of whom were asking Washington questions. Neither Washington nor Hartmann could identify anyone around their tables who could provide any additional assistance.

Following the initial news reports about the shootings and the weapons involved, Washington did not think anything about this particular show and their sales of guns at the Tanner Gun Show. He wondered who had sold the weapons which were used in the shootings. After Robyn Anderson was identified and her picture appeared on the news, Washington immediately recognized her as the female who had purchased the shotgun from Hartmann. He telephonically contacted Hartmann and told him of this fact, but Hartmann did not believe Washington at first, because the news reports did not mention that Anderson had purchased the shotgun.

Washington stated that he wished to cooperate fully with this investigation. Washington does have concerns for his personal safety due to the numerous leaks of information to the media about the progress of the investigation. He feels that Hartmann legally sold a shotgun to an 18 year old individual and did nothing illegal and cannot be blamed for what happened at Columbine High School. Washington fears that if his identity got out, people would attack him or his family and vandalize his home out of vengeance for what happened. He does not believe people would act rationally toward either him or Hartmann if their identities were divulged.

Washington could provide no additional information at this time and the interview was terminated at this point.

On May 4, 1999, James Royce Washington (PROTECT IDENTITY), also known as Jim Washington, 6020 Snowbird Drive, Colorado Springs, Colorado 80918, was telephonically contacted at his residence. After being advised of the identity of the interviewing agent and the nature of the interview, Washington voluntarily provided the following information:

Washington advised that at the Tanner Gun Show at the Denver Merchandise Mart in Commerce City, Colorado on the weekend of November 21 - 22, 1998, he and Ron Hartmann rented their tables from a friend of Washington's, Bruce Guthridge or Gutridge. Washington was unsure of the exact spelling of the last name.

Washington described Guthridge as being a gun dealer from the Loveland, Colorado area, northwest of Denver, who he has known for some time. He believes that Guthridge holds a Federal Firearms Dealer's license. Washington would see Guthridge at various gun shows and from time to time, he would assist Guthridge by watching his table while Guthridge went to the bathroom or to get something to eat. Due to his friendship with Guthridge, Washington advised that he and Hartmann would rent their tables at shows from him in order to help Guthridge out with the cost of the rentals.

Washington stated that inside the Merchandise Mart at the Tanner Gun Show, their tables were located near the south side of the east restrooms, in front of some telephone booths. Furthermore, he advised that Guthridge usually rented "end-cap" tables, at the corner of an aisle and they would rent one side of this set-up from him.
